

CCS Insights: Work From Home - The New Perspectives: Policies & Samples

Feel the CCS & Co Difference

Hundreds of millions of people have lived through lockdowns ever since the World Health Organization has declared Covid-19 a pandemic.

The new “working from home economy” is likely to continue long past the Covid-19 pandemic that spawned it, shall possess new challenges to businesses and labour force.

Remote work can be a challenge, and switching quickly to remote work during the pandemic proved even more difficult.

Collaboration is one of the most challenging aspects of remote work, however it can be work effectively through strong policies making while social distancing.

Our speaker, Mr Chin Chee Seng, shall share with you on the challenges on the new perspectives and how businesses shall set policies to manage the labour force, and to work together as a whole for effective collaboration.
